Board of Trustees <sup>[1]</sup>

The mission of the Salem-South Lyon District Library Board of Trustees is to uphold the trust, granted to us by our fellow citizens, as we provide financial direction, long-term strategic planning, advocacy and provide policies for the library while continuing our professional development.

President

Deborah (Debbie) Mroz has been a trustee since 2003 when she was asked to consider completing the partial term vacated by another trustee. She enjoyed the experience so much that she ran for re-election and has been a board member for 11 years. Debbie and her husband, Dave, have two children and have been residents of Salem Township for 22 years. Debbie has a Bachelor of Business Administration from Eastern Michigan University and finds that working with the library is a good fit for many of the skills she learned while working in the corporate world for 20 years. Debbie enjoys travelling to new places, reading, skiing, dancing, reality TV, and photography.

Vice-President

Linda Hamilton has lived in Salem Township for many years. She and her husband are involved in the family dairy farm which has operated since the 1820?s. All 3 of her children (all being regular library users) were raised in Salem and her daughter worked at the library while attending college. Linda served on the very first Salem-South Lyon District Library Board of Trustees as its president. She oversaw the building of initial district library building. Linda believes a quality library is integral to any community.

Secretary

Amy Randall-Ray was born and raised in Illinois. She received her BS in Foods and Nutrition from the University of Illinois and her MS in Nutritional Sciences from the University of Illinois. She moved to Michigan in 1996 with her husband and continued her education at the University of Michigan to complete her dietetic internship. Amy has lived in South Lyon since 1999. She has three kids, two of which participate in the library friends club. Amy currently works for Genentech Pharmaceuticals in clinical research. She is an active member at the United Methodist Church. Amy and her family enjoy traveling and outdoor activities. She, of course loves to read and believes that the library is at the vital core of every community.
