Who Can Get a Library Card?

Salem-South Lyon District Library (SSLDL) library cards are free for anyone who lives, teaches or owns property/business in the City of South Lyon, Salem Township or Green Oak Township. There is a limit of one library card per person.

Adults ages 18 and older can apply in person for an adult library card.

Children and Teens, age birth to 17:

- A parent or legal guardian must accompany minors that are applying for a library card.
- The signing parent or legal guardian is responsible for all material checked out on a child's card.

Teachers can obtain a library card with proof of employment with the South Lyon School District.

Non-Residents can obtain a library card for $130/family/year. Click here  <sup>[2]</sup> for more information and frequently asked questions.

Families who live in Lyon Township can purchase a "Summer Pass" for $32.50 per family from June 1 - August 31. A valid library card from your home library, the Lyon Township Public Library is necessary.

Acceptable ID

To obtain a library card, you will need one of the following:

- Current driver's license
- Current non-driver's identification
- Current passport
- Photo alien registration card
- Armed Forces ID card

If your address is not current on one of the items above, a second piece of ID is required:

- Current rental or lease agreement
- Bank statement
- Tax bill or receipt
- Utility bill (electric, gas, etc.)

The address on any bill must match the address on your library card application and can be no older than three (3) months.

Renewing Your Card

Cards expire annually. You must come to the library and provide acceptable ID when renewing your library card.

Replacing Your Card

Report your lost or stolen library card immediately. You are responsible for any items borrowed on your card. To replace your card, you must show acceptable ID.

Borrowing Materials

You are responsible for the materials you borrow. You will be assessed fees if your materials are overdue, damaged, incomplete or lost. SSLDL suspends borrowing privileges when your fines and fees exceed the the $10 threshold. You can restore your borrowing privileges once your account falls below the $10 threshold.

You can borrow:

- Most books for 28 days. New books may vary between 14 and 21 days.
- Audiobooks for 28 days. New audiobooks are 21 days. You can borrow up to ten (10) audiobooks for one cardholder account.
- DVDs, CDs and magazines for 1 week. New DVDs are 3 days. You can borrow a combined total of ten (10) DVD titles for one cardholder account. Same rule applies for music CDs.

SSLDL is a member of The Library Network, allowing patrons with a library card to check-out material from more than 50 ther locations. To learn more, click here<sup>[3]</sup>.

Renew

Most items that you check out can be renewed as long as the item you are trying to renew is not on hold by another patron and you have not exceeded your allotted renewal $10 threshold.

There are four ways to renew:

- In person at Salem-South Lyon District Library
- Online by going to My Account in the library catalog?you will need to enter your 14-digit library barcode and PIN<sup>[4]</sup>
- Over the phone by calling 248.437.6431- Please have your library card handy when renewing by phone
- Automated Phone Renewal for 24/7 TOLL FREE renewals. You can now renew materials and check your library record by calling (888) 672-8983. You will need your library card, PIN [4] and a touch tone phone. Please note that an all-numeric PIN [4] number is required to use this service. Please see the Circulation Desk if you need help in establishing or changing your PIN[4].

Return

Return materials in person or by using our drive up book drop. We also have a drop box conveniently located at Centennial Farms.

Incomplete Sets/Missing Discs

Any material that has multiple parts (e.g. audiobooks, DVD sets) must have all parts in place at the time of return (including returns in book drops). SSLDL reserves the right to charge the full amount of the item for incomplete or missing items.

Overdue Items

All materials are due back by the date indicated at the time of checkout or renewal. You will accrue extended use fees if you return your material after the due date. Overdue notices are sent by email or regular mail. Notices of items coming due are sent to those that select email as their primary form of contact. To ensure compliance with the Michigan Library Privacy Act, MCL 397.602(2)(i), SSLDL cannot provide any information about library records over the telephone.

Extended Use Fees

Extended use fees accrue per item, per calendar day, even when SSLDL is closed - holidays and Sundays are excluded.

- Books: $0.10/day
- Audiobooks, CDs, DVDs and Games are : $.50/day
- Youth DVDs, Audiobooks and CDs are: $.25/day
- Collection Agency Fee: $15
- Current Fines Threshold: $10

SSLDL suspends borrowing privileges when your overuse fees exceed the $10 threshold. You can restore your borrowing privileges once your account falls below the threshold.

Billed Items

Unreturned materials are eventually ?billed? to your account. You cannot place holds, renew materials or check out new materials until the billed items has been returned or paid for. If you return a billed item, an extended use fee will be assessed (see extended use fee above). SSLDL utilizes a collection agency to assist in recovering lost/stolen materials.

Lost and Damaged Material

Customers who have lost or damaged library material will be charged the full amount of the library material.

Paying Your Fines and Fees

You can pay extended use fees using the following methods:

- Cash payment
- Checks made payable to SSLDL
- Credit card in person
- Credit card online<sup>[5]</sup>

The library accepts Visa, MasterCard and Discover

Tips to Avoid Fines and Fees

Receipts

Look at the due dates for each individual item on the receipt provided to you at checkout.

Renew

Remember to renew your items before they are due. If you receive courtesy notices, you should renew your items immediately to ensure that the material is not on hold for another patron and that you will not have to return it.

Responsibility

You are responsible for all material checked out on your card. Do not let anyone use your card and do not divulge your PIN <sup>[4]</sup> to anyone. Report your lost or stolen library card immediately.
